

Tested by you

Top 10 facial exfoliators

Learn how to scrub up well with these great exfoliants

Glenda Raby, 61,
Preston, Lancashire

TESTED: Think Happy Organic Surge Let's Face It Stimulating Face Exfoliant, £5.99, 150ml

'This exfoliant was quite gentle and contained natural ingredients and essential oils. It left my skin feeling hydrated and smooth, and had a very fresh, clean smell.' 8/10

Jane Brown, 33, Melton Mowbray, Leicestershire

TESTED: Superdrug Clarity Daily Exfoliating Wash, £2.49, 150ml

'A pleasant, fresh-smelling wash that had just enough beads to gently cleanse and exfoliate. It left my skin feeling soft and clean. I would consider buying this, as it's great value for money.' 7/10

best buy

Camilla Lambert, 26,
Bicester, Oxfordshire

TESTED: L'Oréal Pure Zone Deep Exfoliating Gel Wash, £3.99, 150ml

'The consistency of this product was a little too runny, which made applying it a bit messy. It had a lovely fresh apple smell and it made my skin feel fresh and clean. It's good value for money.' 8/10

Patricia Trohear, 59, north London

TESTED: Dr Denese Exfoclean BHA Cleanser, £17.95, 236ml

'A very effective lotion that contains citric acid and lavender oil. I found it minimised the size of the pores on the greasy T-zone areas. It may be too harsh for really dry skin, but worked well on mine.' 9/10

Pat Tadman, 54,
Newport, South Wales

TESTED: Elemis Anti-Ageing Papaya Enzyme Peel, £23.50, 50ml

'I liked this product, and my fine lines seemed to be less noticeable after using it. I liked the fact that it did not have a strong smell. The texture was good and it was very easy to use.' 10/10

winner

Myra Sanderson, 53,
Edinburgh

TESTED: No7 Gentle Renewing No Grains Exfoliator, £8.50, 75ml

'This was a creamy, fragrance-free product, which needed lots of rinsing off. After using it, my skin felt dry, papery and slightly irritated. I wouldn't use it again.' 5/10

Julie Cooper-Jones, 40,
Marsden, West Yorkshire

TESTED: Champneys Skin-Glowing Facial Scrub Mask, £8, 75ml

'The texture of this product was grainy, due to the oats and jojoba wax beads, and it had a pleasant smell. It felt like it deep-cleansed my skin and left it feeling tingly, fresh and clean.' 7/10

Winnie Peverill, 72,
Otley, West Yorkshire

TESTED: Clinique Exfoliating Scrub, £15, 100ml

'This product had a nice texture and no fragrance. I wouldn't normally spend this much on an exfoliator, but it left my skin so soft and clean, I feel it's worth it.' 8/10

Jo Cook, 37,
south London

TESTED: Boots Botanics Purifying Face Scrub, £3.59, 75ml

'The texture was a little runny but was easy to work with, although there didn't seem to be many granules in it. With regular use, it definitely improved my complexion.' 7/10

Jan Bresweth, 41,
Liverpool

TESTED: Origins Modern Friction, £27.50, 125ml

'The ingredients felt natural and it had a nice oatmeal smell. The paste was easy to apply and it made my skin feel smooth and very clean. It didn't dry out my skin like some scrubs, and left it feeling well balanced.' 9/10

