Wave wrinkles goodbye!

Turn back time with these age-busting treatments

Laughter lines

The cause Drastic weight loss, sun exposure and pulling faces.

Salon tricks Injection treatment Restylane contains hyaluronic acid, a natural substance found in skin. It fills out lines and wrinkles and costs from £250. Or try Sculptra – it's injected deeper into skin to help stimulate new collagen. Prices start at £350.

Home help The Anti-Ageing Kit by MD Formulations has eye cream, sun protection and other products to combat the ravages of time. It costs £49.95.

Broken capillaries

The cause Sun, temperature swings, alcohol and spicy food.

Salon tricks AcuNLite, a laser light therapy, treats thread veins and rosacea, using light to neutralise uneven pigment. Available at £100 per session.

Home help Medik8 Red Alert, £29, and Avon Anew Clinical Laser, £15, help to fade and clear veins and redness.

Worry lines

The cause Sun exposure and pulling faces.

Salon tricks Botox – but it could create wrinkles as your face moves differently after. Finishing Touches Wrinkle Therapy, from £150, speeds up collagen production using needles.

Home help Try Dr Denese Line-Erase, a protein-enriched, wrinkle-relaxing serum, £59.95, or Marks & Spencer Revival Formula Cosmotox Plus, £15.

Crow's feet

The cause Squinting, smoking, dehydration and the sun.

Salon tricks Via injection, Isolagen uses your own skin cells to rebuild your natural foundation and give skin a finer texture. Results aren't instant but last around five years. From £2,500.

Home help Skin Doctors Cosmeceuticals' Eyetuck, £32.95, also works on puffiness. Asda Skin Expert Crow's Feet Diminisher, £7.97, contains light-reflecting particles that bounce off fine lines.
